Fun Things to Do in Chicago!

Chicago River Cruise Architectural Tour
The Chicago River Cruise Architectural Tour provides a tour of some of Chicago's iconic buildings with a different point of view – from the side of the Chicago River. The length of the tour is approximately 70 minutes. See page 4 for additional details.

Lurie Garden
Designed by Gustafson Guthrie Nichol Ltd, Piet Oudolf and Robert Israel, this five acre garden pays homage to the City's motto, “Urbs in Horto” (City in a Garden), which refers to Chicago's transformation from its flat and marshy origins to a bold and powerful city.

Navy Pier
From rides to restaurants, exhibitions to entertainment, shopping to dining cruises and tour boats, Navy Pier has it all – in a location unlike any other.

Willis Tower Skydeck
Why, yes, you can ascend the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere. You can even step out over the side of the building, 103 floors and 1,353 feet up in the air. This is the building formerly known as the Sears Tower; don’t be surprised if you still hear it called that.

Cloud Gate (The Bean)
Said to have been inspired by liquid mercury, the sculpture’s surface reflects and distorts the city’s skyline. Visitors are able to walk around and under Cloud Gate’s 12-foot-high arch.

Millennium Park
Situated right on Lake Michigan, Millennium Park attracts thousands of visitors each year to see everything from summer time concerts to the Buckingham Fountain.

Lincoln Park Zoo
A free 35-acre zoo located in Lincoln Park. The zoo was founded in 1868, making it one of the oldest zoos in the U.S. For something a little different, try an outdoor yoga class at the zoo. Classes are held in a distinctive pavilion designed by famous architect Jeanne Gang.

Shedd Aquarium
Visit one of the largest aquariums in the world, home to over 800 aquatic creatures.

John Hancock Center
Take a break from shopping along the Magnificent Mile and head up to the Observation Deck of this iconic Chicago landmark. You can gaze down upon the city, the lakefront and even neighboring states. Stop in at the 94th floor café to refuel.

Shop Magnificent Mile
The Magnificent Mile is Chicago's largest shopping district and boasts more than 460 retailers, including popular brands; major department stores; international luxury labels and designers; and three vertical shopping centers. Landmarks along the Magnificent Mile include Wrigley Building, Tribune Tower, the Chicago Water Tower, and the Allerton Hotel. Shop.....Shop....Shop!

Art Institute of Chicago
The Art Institute of Chicago, founded in 1879 and located in Chicago's Grant Park, is one of the oldest and largest art museums in the United States. Its collection includes iconic works such as Georges Seurat's A Sunday on La Grande Jatte — 1884, Pablo Picasso's The Old Guitarist, Edward Hopper’s Nighthawks, and Grant Wood’s American Gothic. The museum is open daily from 10:30–5:00 and on Thursday 10:30–8:00.

Museum of Contemporary Art
One of the nation’s largest facilities devoted to contemporary art. MCA Chicago documents contemporary visual culture through painting, sculpture, photography, video and film, and performance. Located in the heart of downtown Chicago, the MCA has a gift shop, bookstore, restaurant, 300-seat theater, and a terraced sculpture garden with a great view of Lake Michigan.
